THE 1992 LION

Dedication

The Yearbook Staff, with great pride, dedicates the 1991 Lion to Mrs. Frances Rush. Her smiling face, and many years of service will always be remembered by students, faculty, and staff of EMCC. We admire her because of her loving kindness and sincere concern that should serve to inspire us all.

EMCC President

Dr. Thomas L. Davis, Jr.

The President's Message

Greetings to the students, faculty, and staff of East Mississippi Community College. May this yearbook be the catalyst for pleasant memories of friends and experiences shared during the 1991-92 school year.

As you reflect on the year highlighted in these pages, let me encourage you to remember that preparation determines, to a very large extent, the amount of success one can expect in life. We at EMCC are pleased to have been a part of that preparation.

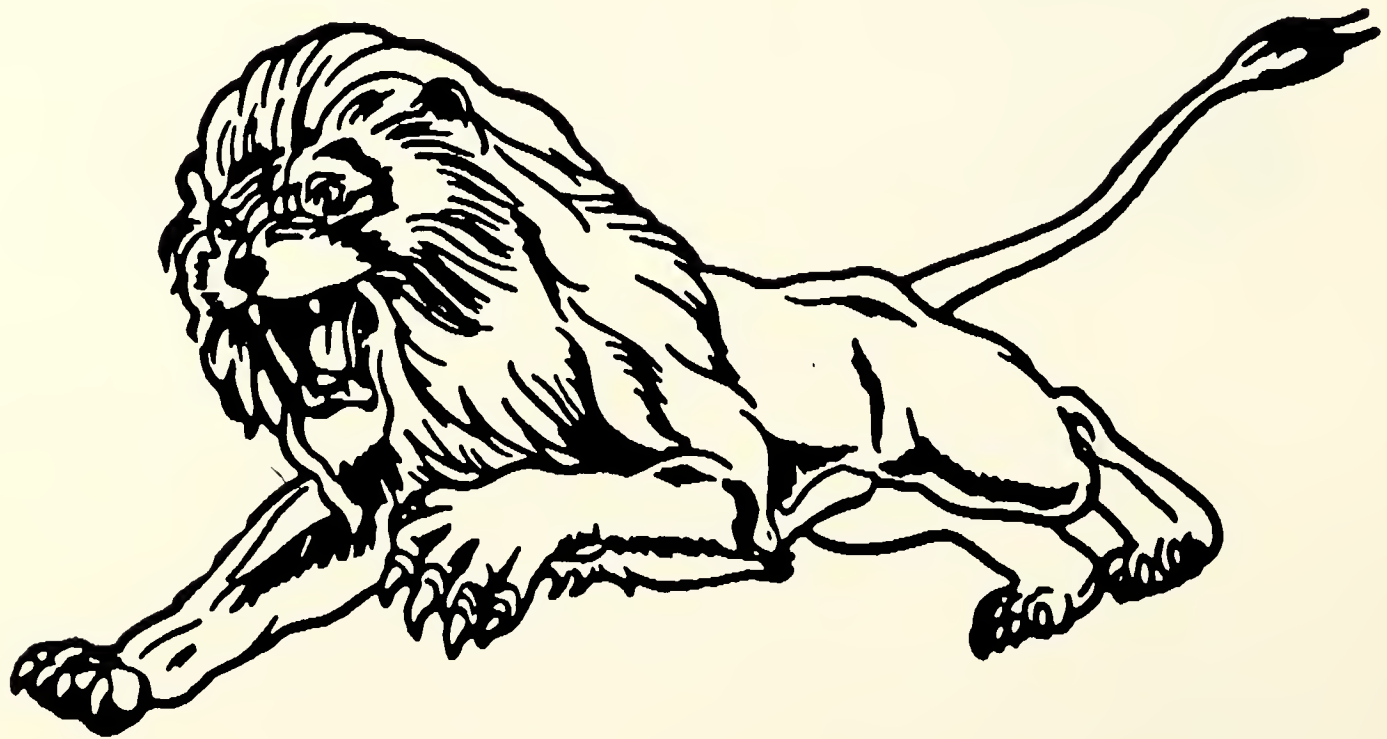

Best wishes for a successful and happy future!

PINE GROVE FESTIVAL

PINE GROVE FESTIVAL

The first Pine Grove Festival was held in the spring of 1968 as a result of the efforts of EMCC's art and drama teachers. This festival, named for the beautiful grove of pines on our campus, began as a display of art, drama production, and a program of band and choral music.

As time passed the English Department became involved in Pine Grove and was instrumental in conducting a workshop and literary competition for area high school students. In the spring of 1970, this involvement developed into the publishing of the first Syzygy, a collection of students' poems, essays, and art.

EMCC is proud of our Pine Grove Festival tradition. This week not only allows us to enjoy ourselves, but it allows each of us to reflect upon our own creative abilities as well as the creative expressions of others.

CAMPUS . . .

. . . SNAP SHOTS

These guys are too pro!

Nice throw pillow and balloons!

Isn't it nice without Coach Baldner around?

Now for our lesson in backscratching . . .

The official Scooba couple of the year.

The Scooba Party Patrol

Yeah! We saw that?

The Academic Scholars of Scooba? Definitely Not!

Einstein, Edison, and Hyde fast at work!

The Scooba soup line.

ALMA MATER

E-M-C-C wise and glorious,
Heart and soul of each and all!
Over fate and foe victorious,
Deep inside thy cherished halls.
Armed with loyalty, sing we to thee,
As our hearts with love do soar;
Alma Mater, E-M-C-C,
God preserve thee evermore.

Righteousness has been thy purpose,
Guiding all in work and prayer,
We will keep thee e'er beside us,
Through the Arch we proudly share,
Thou who brought us to life's challenge,
In the good old days now gone,
Raise red and white high o'er us,
Lead and we will follow on.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

It's hard to believe this is the last page that I'll be typing for the yearbook. It has been quite a challenge to meet deadlines and overcome problems with photography.

I would like to thank the "Lion" staff and our advisors, Mrs. Ethel Jarvis and Mrs. Martha Taylor, for their assistance and dedication to the yearbook.

I would also like to thank Dr. Conrad DiMichele and Mr. James Skipper for their invaluable assistance with our photography.

On behalf of the 1992 "Lion" staff, we hope you enjoy the yearbook. We hope the 1992 "Lion" serves as a reminder of pleasant memories here at EMCC for years to come.

I appreciate the opportunity to serve as editor of the 1992 "Lion". I will always remember EMCC and the "Lion".

Sincerely,
David R. Jones
Editor
